I filed comments in 12-201 without realizing I should also have posted into 13-140 and 08-65. I now realize I should have cross filed everything in all three captioned proceedings. As a pro se petitioner, I hope to be excused for the lapse. Since all submissions were sent to 12-201, they are posted to the public and should have been noticed by interested parties. Therefore I hope this late posting into 13-140 and 08-65 would not affect the ability of interested parties to respond.

In this filing, I am cross posting the IRFA comments I had submitted 06/19/2013. IRFA was supposed to be submitted separately.
